

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

A Negro Brute Lynched.
 RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 15.—[Special]—A month ago Carter Barnett, a negro man, made an assault in the bedroom of a white girl, the daughter of Reuben Overton, who made an outcry and the negro escaped. The next day he was caught and confessed that he had been in the room, but not for the purpose of assault. He was arrested and confined in the Oxford jail. This morning it was discovered that the jail had been opened and Barnett was hanging to a tree a quarter of a mile off. A similar assault was made by another negro in the same vicinity three months ago. He was tried and sent to the penitentiary. It is supposed the people of the community concluded to take the law this time in their own hands.

Ex-Senator Ingalls on the Election.
 ATCHISON, Kans., Nov. 15.—[Special]—Ex-Senator Ingalls this morning said: "The majority have a right to rule, and when the majority expresses an opinion the verdict should be accepted by every good citizen promptly and cheerfully. Just now I am not making any autopsies or post-mortem examinations." Mr. Ingalls will give over fifty lectures in different parts of the country during the winter, and "Causes and Consequences of the Recent Elections" will be one of his subjects.

A Big Failure in Chicago.
 CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—[Special]—To-day the sheriff took possession of the large foundry owned by A. Sandstrom & Co. Previous to this a confession of judgment amounting to over $300,000 was filed in the circuit court. The firm has for years done a large business in agricultural iron work. The assets of the firm are small. Sharp competition and poor business for the last two or three years are given as the cause of failure.

Cleveland's Majority in Georgia.
 ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 15.—[Special]—The official count for President in Georgia as made by the secretary of State, shows the vote to have been unusually large. Cleveland's vote was 129,230; Harrison's, 48,549; Weaver's, 41,741. Cleveland's plurality over Harrison is 80,681, and his majority over all others 37,991.

An Important Farmers' Meeting.
 NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 15.—[Special]—The Southern agriculturists are assembled at the Tulane University to-day discussing the results of the season's work in the field. Governor Foster came down from the capital this morning in order to be on hand for the opening ceremonies. The meeting will be of great interest to the farmers.

Foreign Ministers Appointed.
 WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—[Special]—The president to-day appointed Wm. Potter, of Pennsylvania, minister to Italy; David P. Thompson, of Oregon, minister to Kurdy and Edward C. Little, of Kansas, consul general to Cairo, Egypt.

Confederate Soldiers' Home Dedicated.
 HIGGINSVILLE, Mo., Nov. 15.—[Special]—The laying of the corner stone and the dedication of the main building of the ex-Confederate Home took place here to-day with impressive ceremonies under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity.

Confederate Veterans.
 The regular monthly meeting of William Watts Camp was held last night at the hall of the Y. M. C. A. There was a gratifying increase in the attendance. Action was taken by which the camp will hereafter be in full membership with the United Camp of Confederate Veterans, of which Gen. John B. Gordon is the commander. Comrade H. W. Fry read an interesting paper prepared by him, giving an account of the operations of the cadets of the Virginia Military Institute during the war. The next regular meeting will be held at the same place on the second Tuesday in December.

A Banquet to Bank Clerks.
 A very pleasant stag party was given by Mayor Trout at his residence last night to employees of the First National and other banks. Wild game was served in abundance, the result of John Trout's recent hunting trip. Among those present were J. W. Shields, Jr., J. T. Meadows, Fleming Loving, John Airheart, P. T. Sandt, E. B. Spencer, Jr., Hugh Penn, Will Airheart, O. S. Martin, all of the First National bank; Lawrence S. Davis, of the Roanoke Trust Company, and G. H. Penn, of the law firm of Penn & Cooke.

A New Hotel to be Opened.
 Messrs. Nicholas and Woodward are taking active steps to furnish their hotel at the corner of Commerce street and Salem avenue and will open it as a first-class European hotel the first of the year. No expense will be spared to make it one of the finest hotels in the South and $20,000 will be devoted to that purpose. It is pleasing to note that notwithstanding the general dullness of business in the Southwest some people have confidence to go ahead and make extensive investments.

The Week of Prayer.
 There will be a public meeting to-night at the Christian Church in the interest of the week of prayer for young men. The week of prayer is observed by all the Young Men's Christian Associations in the world. All other nights except this the service will be for men only, and will be held in the halls of the association, 102 Salem avenue.

The Weather.
 Indications for Virginia: Fair, north-west winds, slightly cooler.

Both Sides Claim the Legislature.
 DENVER, Colo., Nov. 15.—[Special]—The control of the Wyoming legislature is still claimed by both Democrats and Republicans. A special to the News says: "The legislature is composed of 49 members. Of these six are Republicans hold over from the last legislature and one Democrat hold over. Of the remaining forty-two members the Democrats have elected twenty-six and the Republicans 16, making a majority for the Democrats of five on joint ballot. The Republican State committee claim the official count will give them the legislature by a majority of one."

The Strikers Were Successful.
 BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 15.—[Special]—The Birmingham Union railway dummy trains were tied up to-day, only two of them running. The engineers struck against a reduction of five cents an hour, and only two engineers could be secured to fill the vacancies. These men were put on the fairground line but were utterly inadequate to move the crowds, and the State fair was a heavy loser. Late this afternoon an agreement was reached under which the engineers went back to work at the old wages. All the trains will run as usual to-morrow.

Virginia Cavalry Going to the Inauguration.
 RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 15.—[Special]—Governor McKinney has granted permission to Col. Wm. F. Wickham, of the First regiment of Cavalry of Virginia Volunteers, to take his regiment to Washington on the occasion of the second inauguration of Grover Cleveland as President. The colonel will tender his command as the only organized State cavalry regiment in the Union as a special escort of honor to the President-elect.

Griffin Wants to Fight Dixon.
 NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—[Special]—James E. Carroll called at the office of the Evening Sun to-day and made a deposit of $1,000, and issued a challenge for Johnnie Griffin to fight any feather weight in the world. Carroll is anxious to meet Griffin against Dixon.

Meeting of the Alabama Legislature.
 MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 15.—[Special]—The Alabama legislature met to-day at noon and adjourned until to-morrow. F. L. Pitus and W. M. Compton, both of Dallas county, will probably be chosen speaker of the house and president of the senate respectively.

And the Drummer Wep.
 The drummer had just finished a rather unreliable fish story, but nobody said anything for a minute; then a venerable man of clerical cut cleared his throat and said:

"Speaking of fish reminds me of a case that came to my knowledge recently. I live down in southern Ohio on a river bottom farm, and I've got a well on my place about twenty-five feet deep and four feet in diameter, lined with brick. Last summer a year ago I received a couple of a new brand of fish from the fish commission at Washington and I put them in my well.

"I never thought much more about them until one day this past month my wife told me something was the matter with the well, and I'd better see to it. I sent my farm hand down to investigate, and he came back as fast as the wind-lass would turn and reported that something was in the well raising Sam Hill. He couldn't tell what it was, but it looked more like a sea serpent than anything else. It didn't scare me at all, and I got into the bucket myself and went down. And, gentlemen, what do you think I discovered?"

Nobody answered. Nobody knew.

"Well, I'll tell you," continued the narrator, "I found the water only about a foot deep, and those two fish had grown so large that one of them had rubbed his tail off clean down to the quick and the other had worn his nose off up to his eyes just turning around and around in that four foot well, and there's no telling how big they would have been if the water hadn't got so low we had to take them out and turn them loose in the river."

The venerable gentleman ceased talking, and the drummer, with tears in his eyes, went over and shook hands with him.—Detroit Free Press.

Materials of a Story.
 CHAPTER I.
 Gladys Hyson was a beautiful blond, beloved by Frederic Whaple and Jack Smith.

CHAPTER II.
 Frederic sent Gladys an invitation to the theater for Friday evening.

CHAPTER III.
 So did Jack.

CHAPTER IV.
 Gladys inadvertently accepted both.

CHAPTER V.
 A tragedy impeded. But Gladys—

CHAPTER VI.
 Was a smart girl. At the eleventh hour she sent both word that she was very sick. Then she went Saturday night with Jack and Monday night with Fred.—Chicago News-Record.

WINSTON'S BIG FIRE.
 The Idea That the Negroes Set the Town on Fire Is Discredited.

WINSTON, N. C., Nov. 15.—[Special]—The fire which broke out last night in the three-story storage building filled with hay burned all night, in spite of the grateful rain, which put out all the other smoldering fires in the burned blocks. There was considerable excitement in the early evening caused by the discovery of a rag saturated with kerosene burning in the rear of a small house on East Fifth street. There is no clue to the incendiary.

Mayor Kermer to-day publishes a card discrediting the idea of incendiarism by the negroes in the town. The most influential colored citizens met last night and adopted resolutions of sympathy for the sufferers by the fire. The two second fires could not possibly have originated by sparks from the first fire, and there is much mystery as to their origin. The burned-out business men have all secured new quarters for the winter, and most all will rebuild in the spring. Everything is quiet.

Contributions For the Homestead Strikers.
 NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—[Special]—The president of the American Federation of Labor has issued a circular to the public, in which he appeals for financial aid and moral sympathy for the Homestead strikers. Mr. Gompers says it has been decided by the Amalgamated Association and executive council of the American Federation of Labor to designate December 13 as Homestead Day, and he calls upon the wage-workers as well as the liberty-loving citizens to make a contribution of a portion of their earnings of that day to aid the struggling Homesteaders in their contest to defend themselves before the courts. Their case, he adds, must be brought before the highest tribunal of the country, if necessary. Contributions should be sent to Secretary Chris. Evans, 14 Clinton Place, New York city.

A Millionaire's Will.
 NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—[Special]—The will of H. Bradish Johnson, who has large property in Louisiana and this city, was filed for probate to-day. The will only provides for the disposition of his property outside of New Orleans. He was a sugar merchant and is said to have left about $2,000,000 to seven of his children. Each gets a ninth of his estate according to the trust at the end of twenty years, and in the meanwhile another ninth goes to the two children of a deceased son. The last ninth is to be kept in trust for the benefit of his daughter, Lucy N. Carroll, for life. Johnson died at Bay Shore, L. I., November 3rd.

Cleveland's Majority in Virginia.
 CHARLOTTESVILLE, Nov. 15.—[Special]—Captain Sheppard, secretary of the State committee, said to-day that the returns from eighty-five of the one hundred counties will give Cleveland a majority of 48,000.

The National Building Company,

C. O'Leary & Co., Managers,

Room 303, Terry Building

THE NATIONAL BUILDING COMPANY, OF BOSTON, offers the best and safest investment to be found, both to the capitalist and the workingman. It guarantees 10 per cent. dividends to the stockholders and furnishes homes to the workingman for what he now pays rent. Every man should and can own his home. This company furnishes the safest, cheapest plan of getting it.

Philadelphia is called the city of homes, because for years the workingman has been enabled to buy his home upon rental terms.

Why shouldn't Roanoke people do the same and every man have a home of his own?

Call and talk with us on the subject, and we will satisfy you that all we promise can and will be done.
